ICHTHUS 1974

LANCASTER BIBLE COLLEGE
LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

To the graduates of 1974:

You are among those who will be the first to graduate from Lancaster Bible College. Our institution is more than forty years old but this is our first year with a NEW name. There is always something exciting in being a part of something that is NEW.

Our life as believers in Christ began with a NEW birth by which we received NEW life and became NEW creatures in Christ Jesus. God's mercies and compassions are NEW every morning and He has put a NEW song in our mouths, even praise unto our God.

All of these NEW things are possible because we belong to and serve a Lord who has said, "Behold I make all things NEW" (Revelation 21:5). While this refers to His future activity, it is also true that God can and does bring a newness and freshness to our lives every day. This is the God of whom you have been learning in your days of preparation here at LBC.

May you come to know our God in an increasingly NEW and vital way in the days of service that lie before you. The most precious privilege in time and in eternity is to know Him who makes all things NEW.

Rejoicing in the newness of His life,

Stuart E. Lease

Dr. Stuart E. Lease
President

OUR DEDICATEE

As a person — warm, friendly, cheerful, buoyant, sensitive, resourceful, sociable and well-balanced;

As a professor — firm, effective, understanding, stable, enjoyable and well-liked;

As a professional — gifted, competent, talented, distinguished and well-accepted.

A smile that reflects the loving heart of our creator; hands that are used to direct others in declaring the greatness of our God; a voice that is used to proclaim the good news about our Christ; a man of vigor, a man of humor, but also, a man of God;

. . . These all express the various facets of this well-rounded person to whom the class of 1974 dedicates this yearbook —

WARREN W. WHITNEY

REVELATION

NEW

21:5

New Family

. . . For Your Fellowship In The Gospel From The
First Day Until Now
. . . (Philippians
1:5).

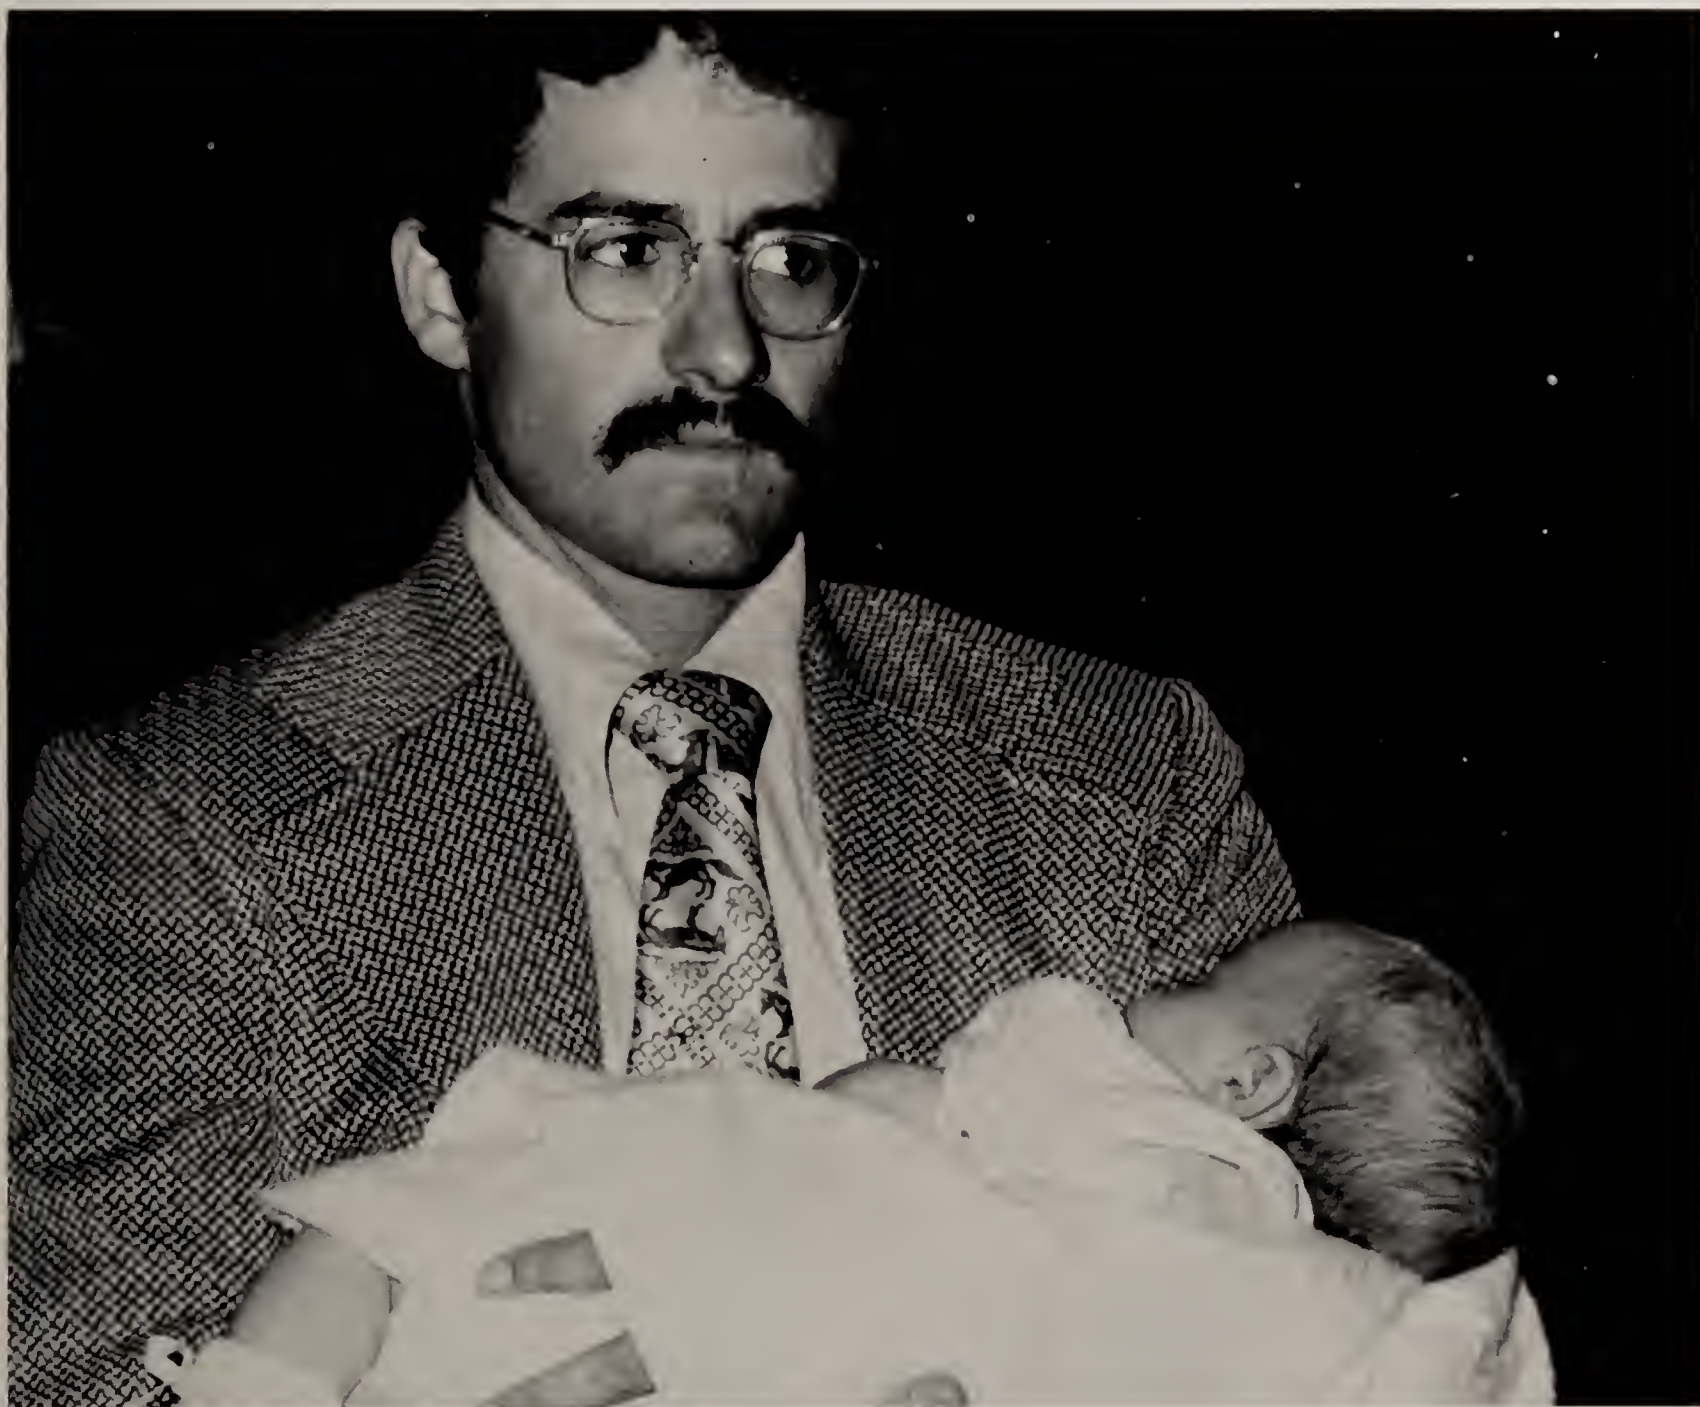

New Life

. . . Even So We Also Should Walk In
Newness Of Life . . .
(Romans 6:4).

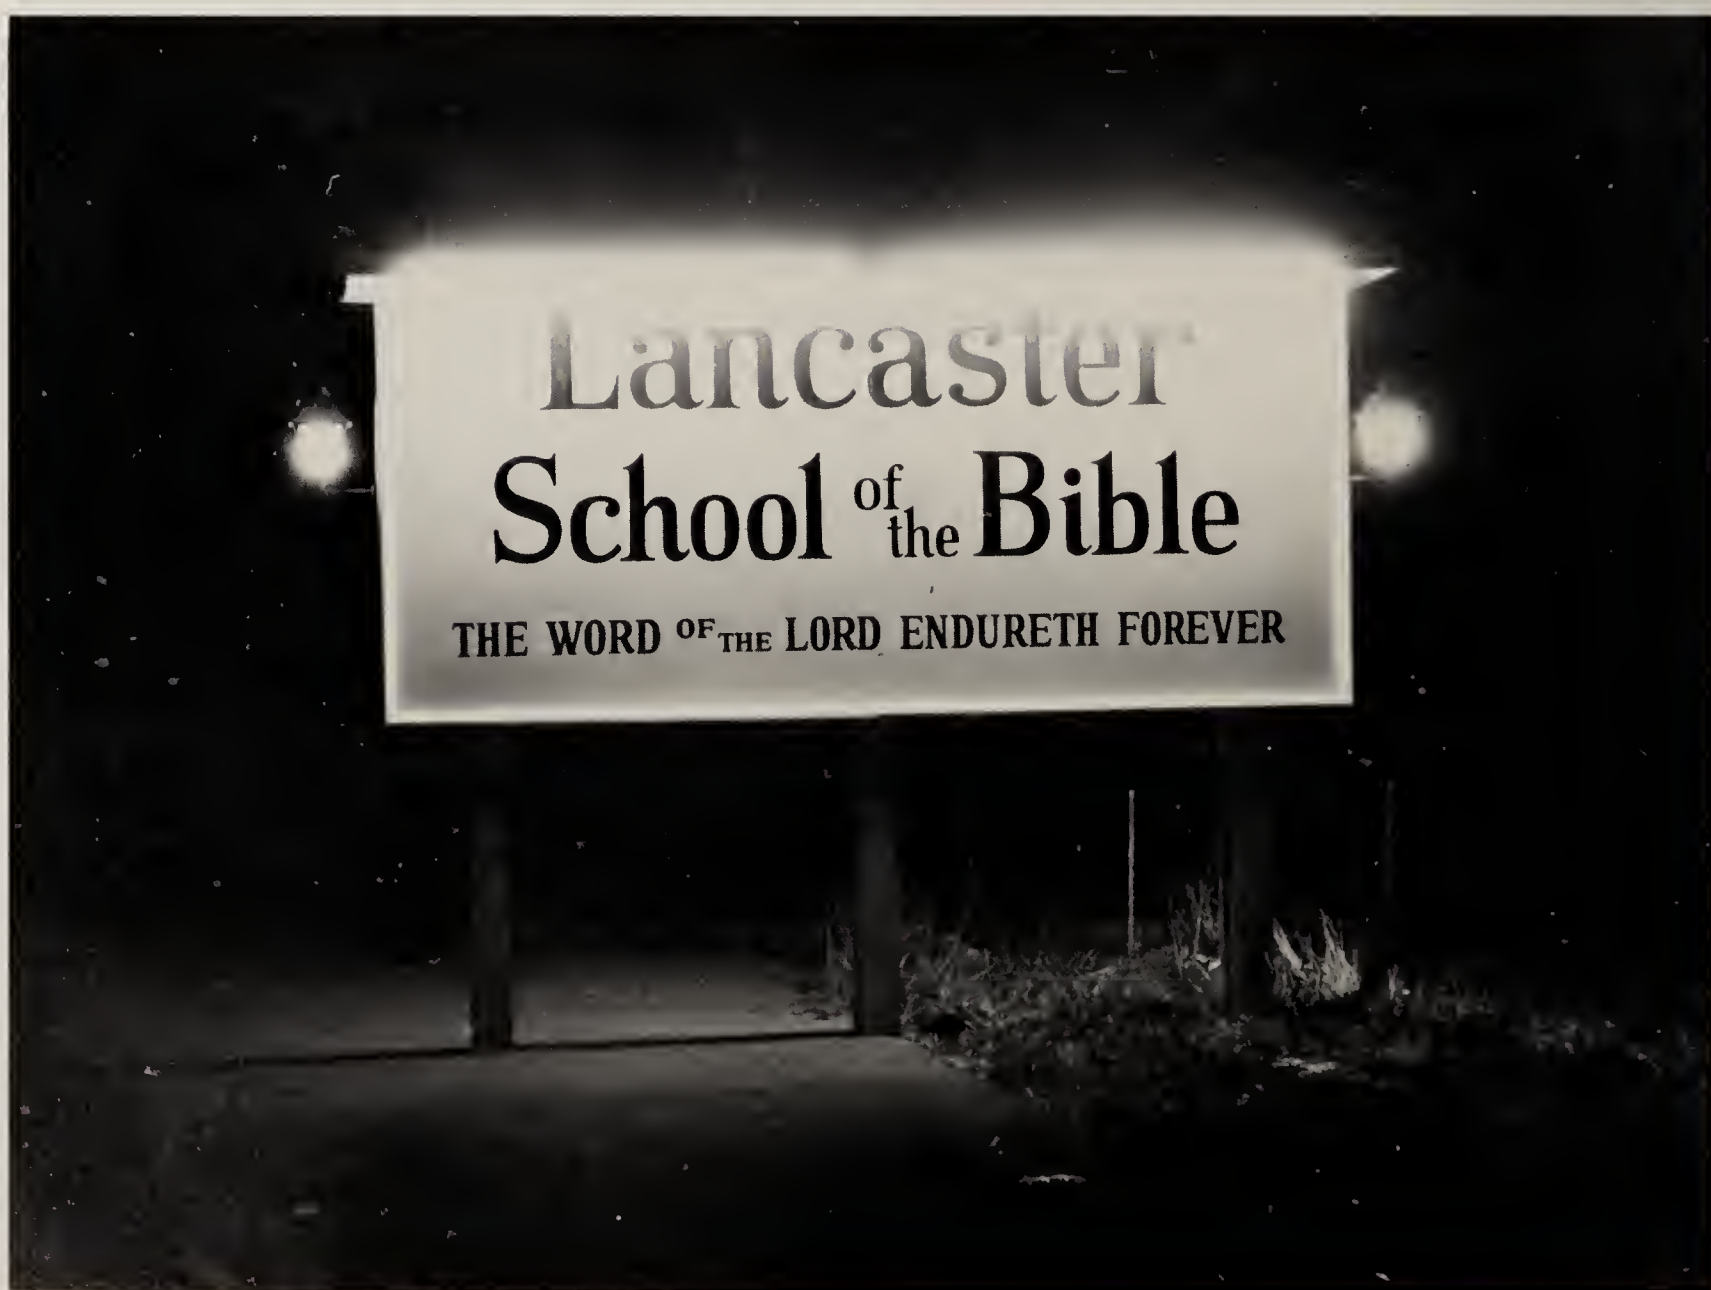

New Relationship

. . . It Is Of The Lord's Mercies
That We Are Not Consumed,
Because His Compassions Fail
Not. They Are New Every Morning . . . (Lamentations
3:22, 23a).

New Name

. . . Is There Any Thing Whereof It
May Be Said, See,
This Is New? . . .
(Ecclesiastes
1:10).

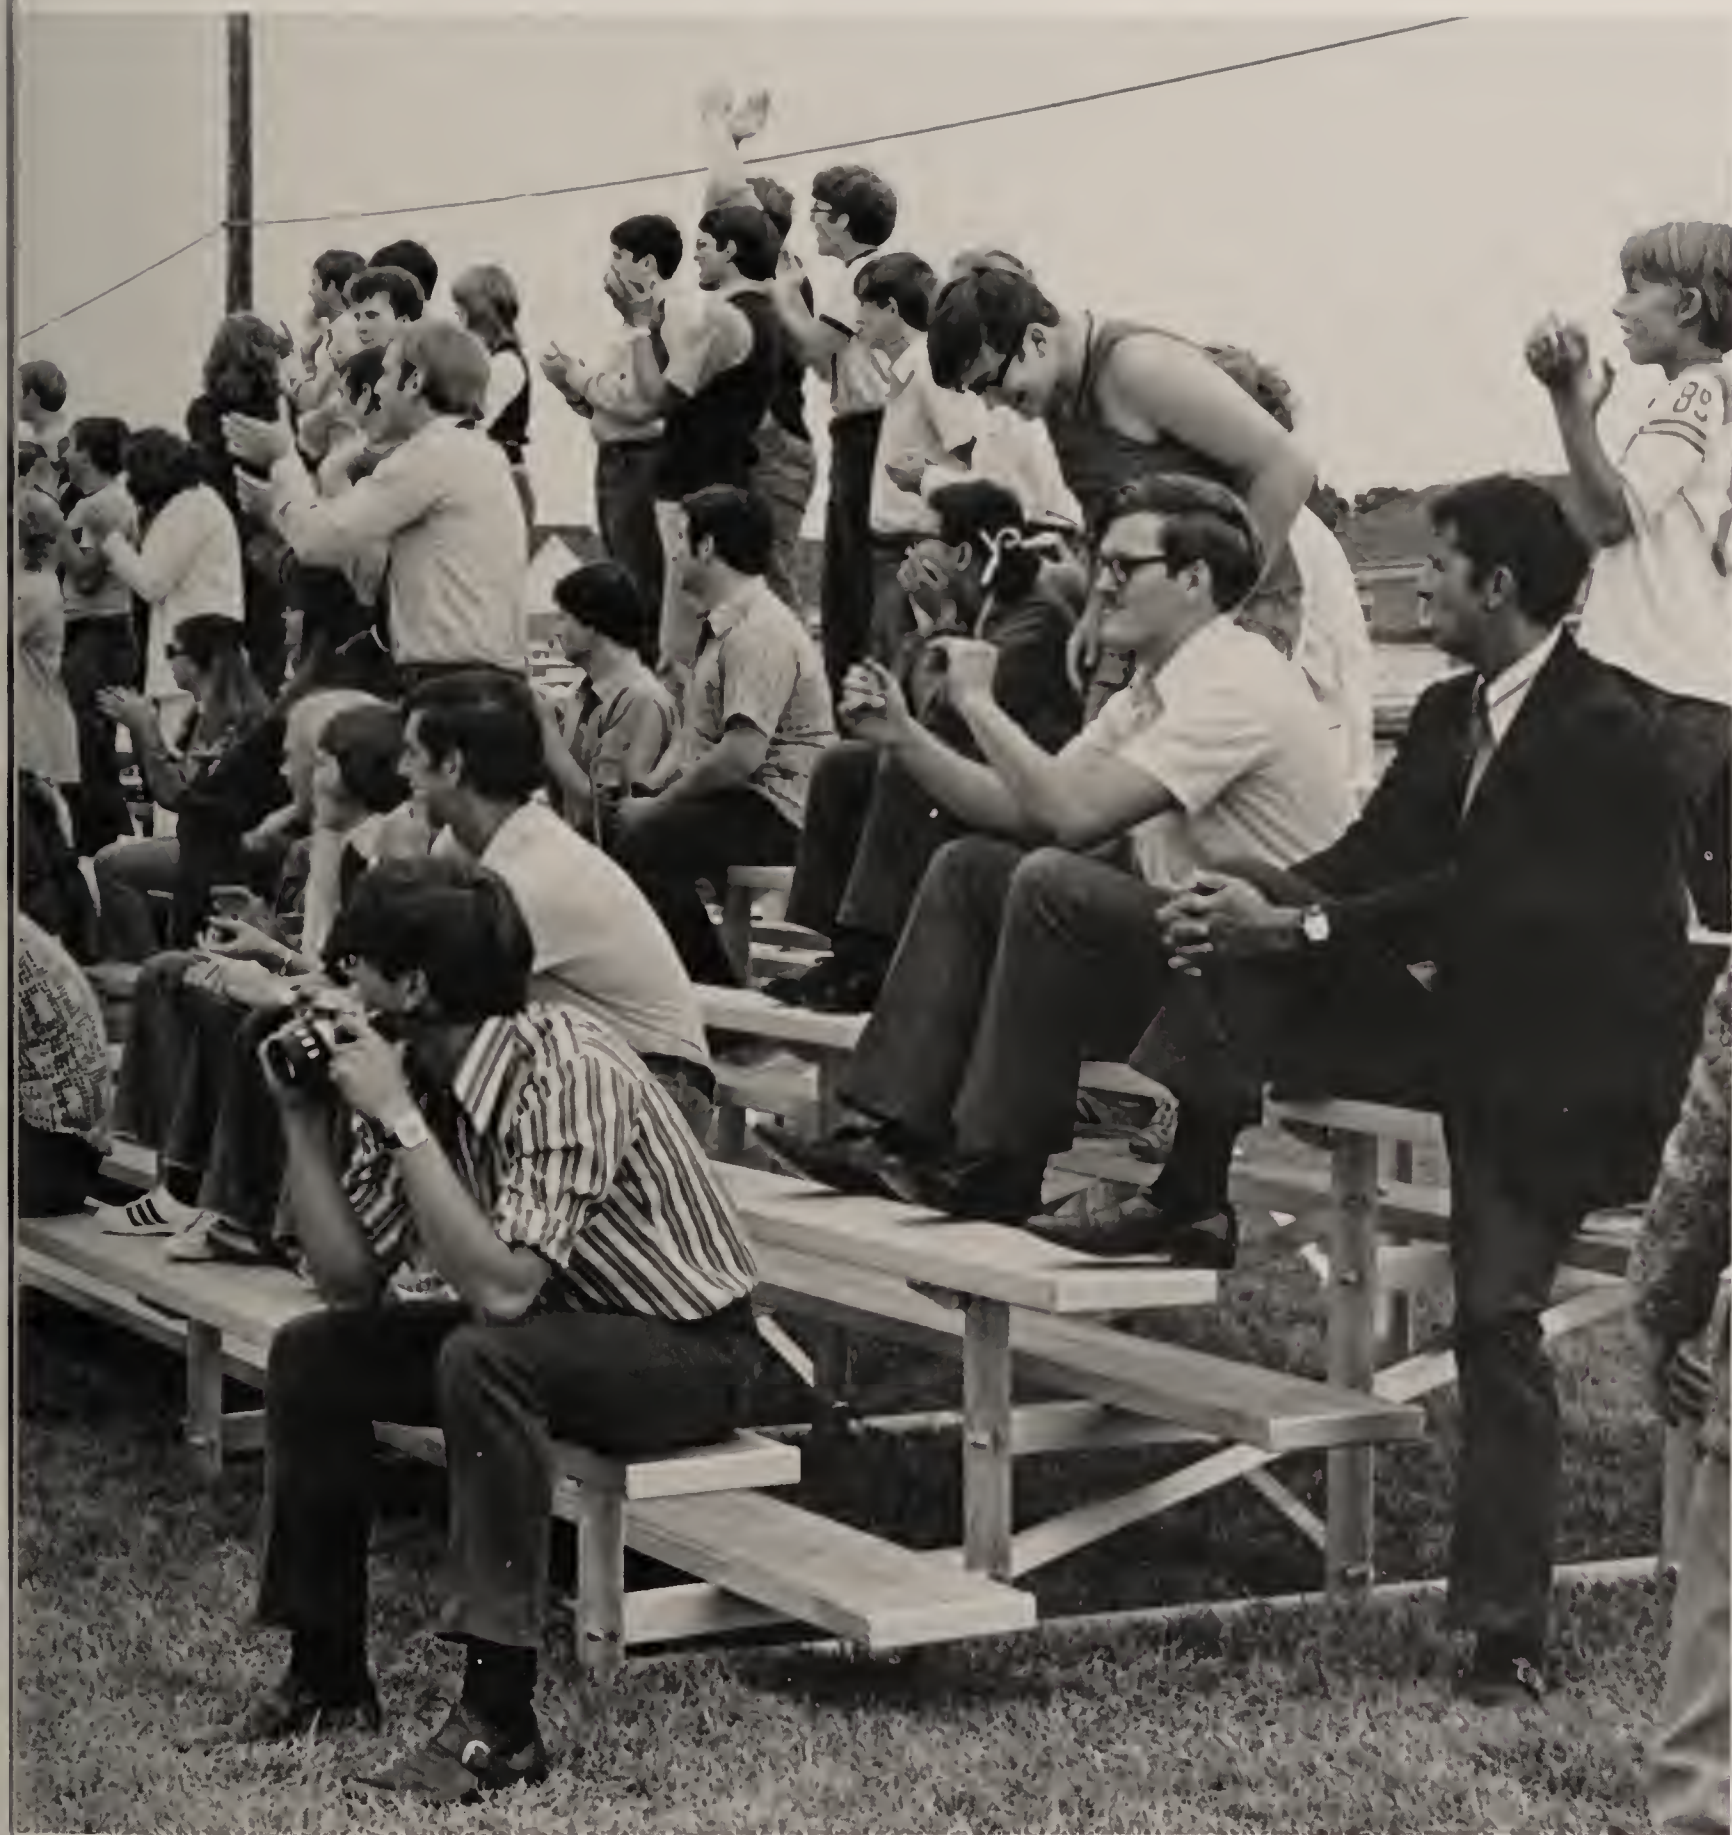

New Song

. . . And He Hath
Put A New Song In My Mouth, Even Praise Unto Our God: Many Shall
See It, And Fear,
And Shall Trust In
The Lord. (Psalm 40:3).

Campus Life

Thou Wilt Show
Me The Path Of Life:
In Thy Presence Is Fullness Of Joy; At
Thy Right Hand
There Are Pleasures
For Evermore
(Psalms 16:11).

Life at Lancaster provides a well-integrated environment for each student. Traveling through each day affords opportunity for classes, studies, social life, work and relaxation.

For There Were Many Coming And Going . . .
(Mark 6:31)

The freshmen arrive with a look of wonder and anticipation upon the faces of all. There is plenty of paperwork to do at registration and this is just the beginning . . .

It's back to the old grind for the upperclassmen. Isn't it amazing how registration never seems to get any easier? Family Affair is a time for all students to get together and find out a little bit about each other. Some of the future students just couldn't seem to take all the excitement.

Life affords us many opportunities. Here at LBC it affords us the chance not only to partake of physical food but also of the Spiritual Food. At the corn roast we ate to our hearts content of the physical food that was put before us. During our Spiritual Life Conference Dr. Wright broke to us the Spiritual Food of the Scriptures. Each of these foods is a vital part of our life at Lancaster Bible College.

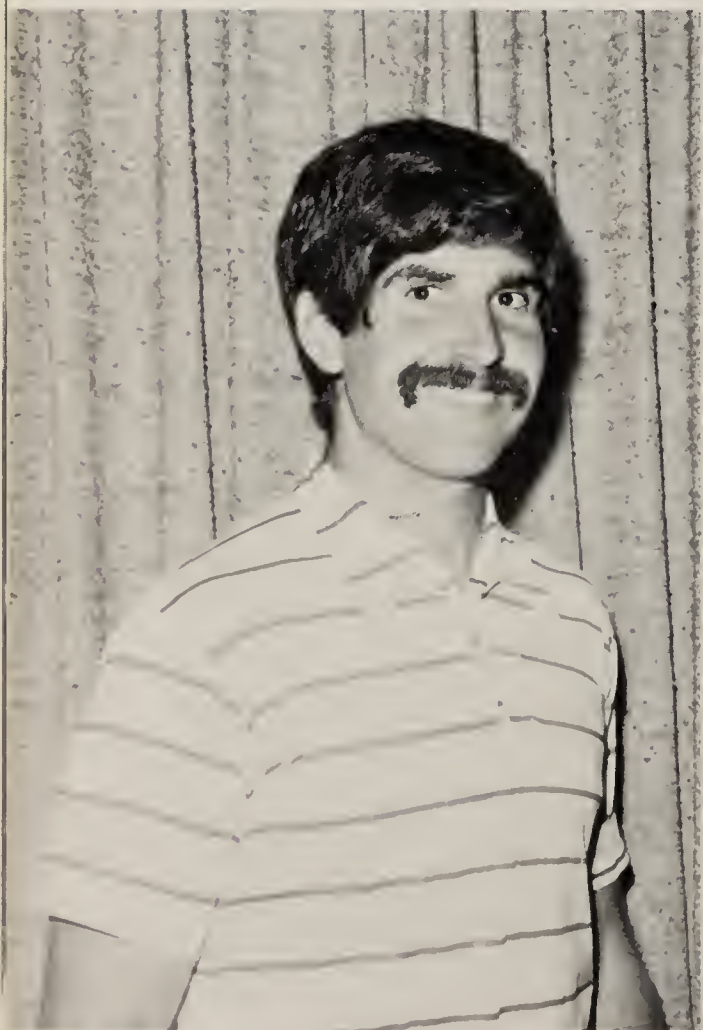

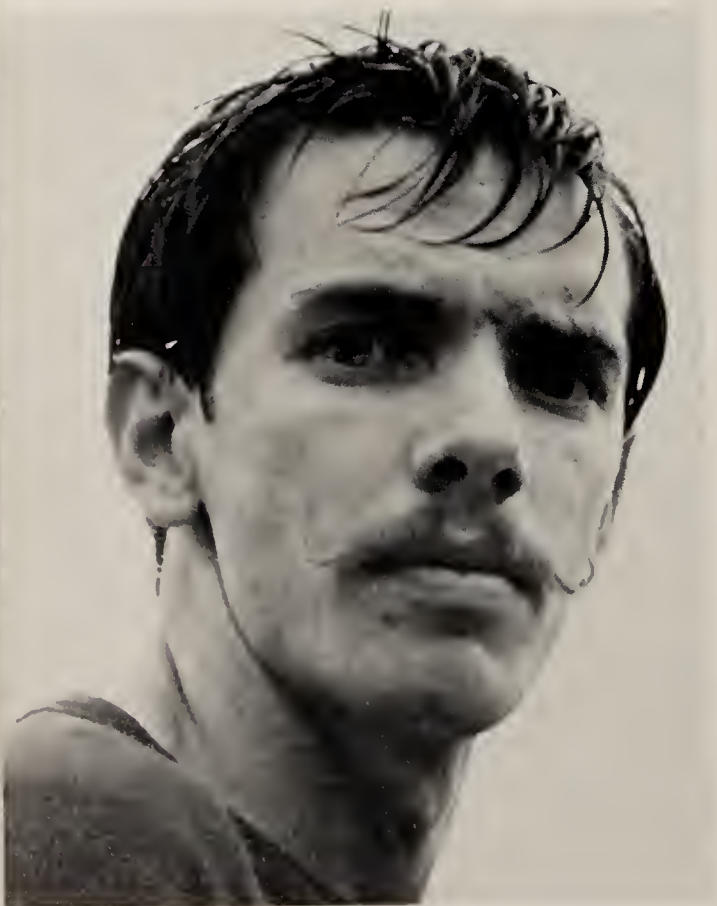

From the groundbreaking of the new Student Union to the building of the bleachers . . . From the professional to the not so professional . . . The crowd using it tests how good the nonprofessionals really are. Of course, there always has to be one boss in the crowd.

A year to remember — we are number ONE! The Chargers, under the leadership of Coach Figart, kicked their way to the Eastern Pennsylvania Christian Conference championship. Congratulations! You're G r r r e a t!!

The girls hockey team had an exceptional season this year. There was a mixture of new and returning players, yet an all-new spirit, enthusiasm, and love for one another.

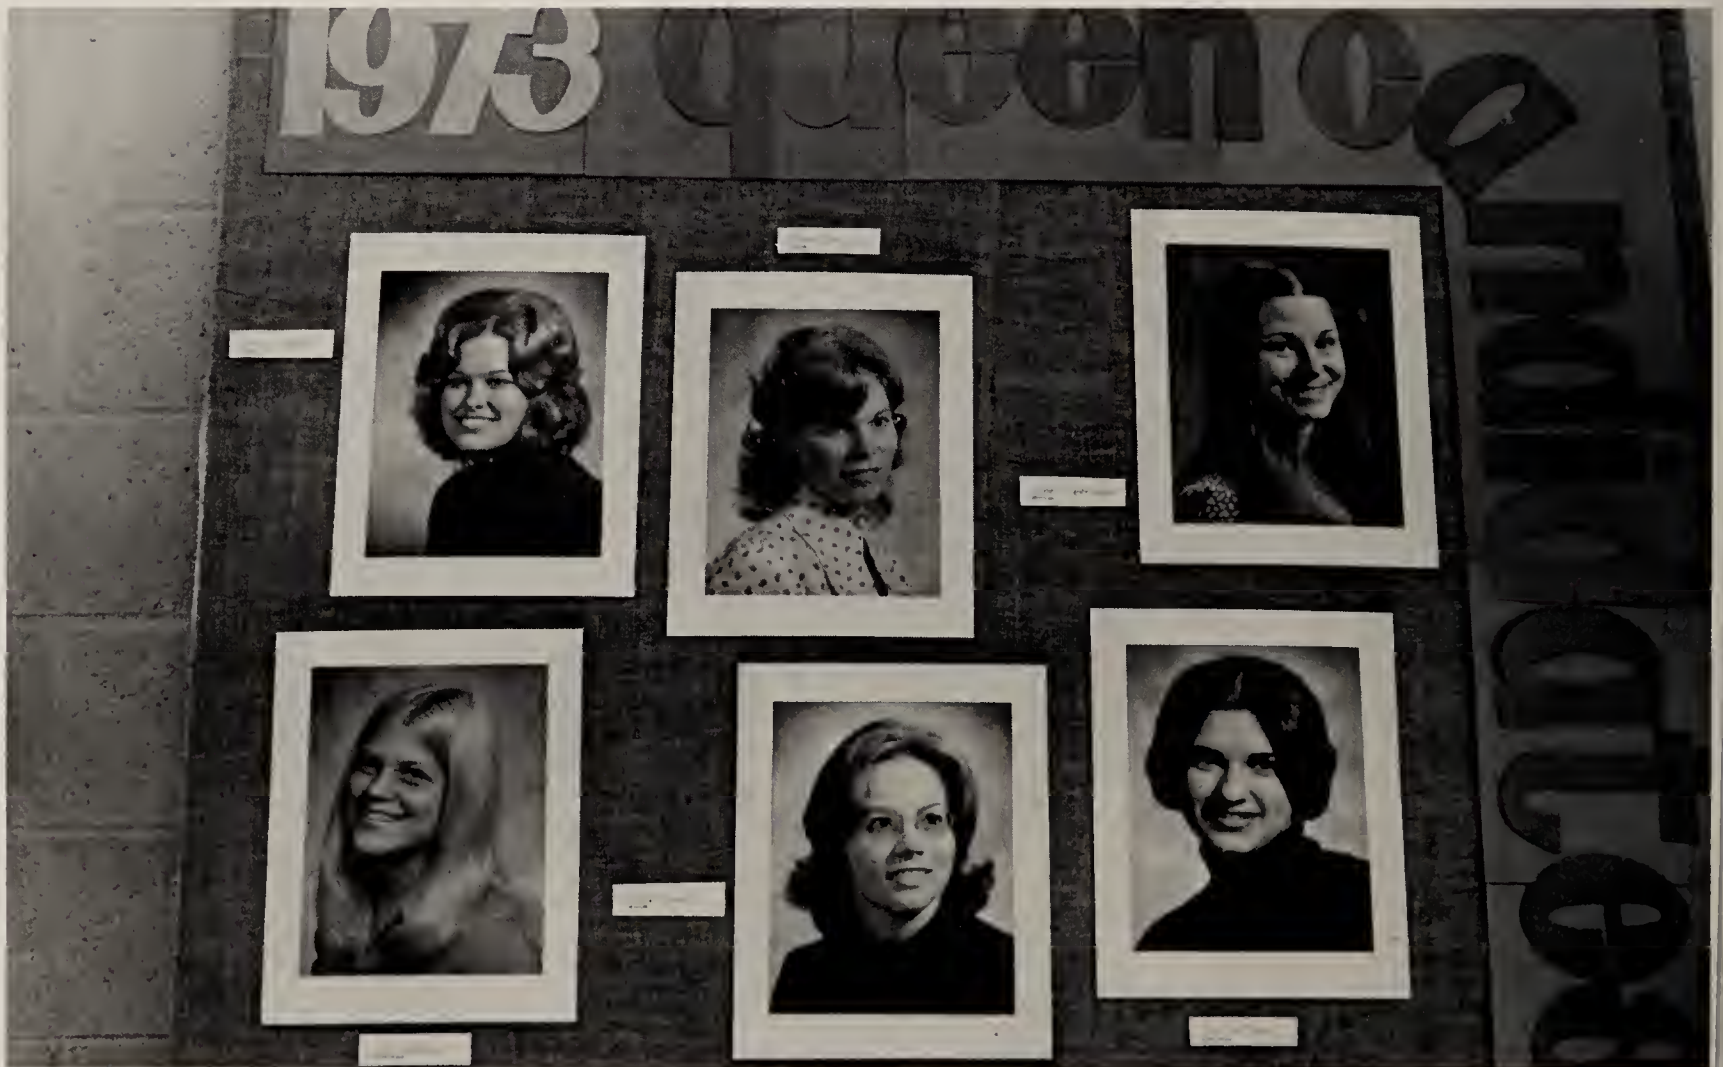

The Student Internship Workshop and Student Leadership Seminar are learning experiences for all. They train us to go out into the world and tell others of the knowledge we have obtained while here on campus. Here we are training to be the leaders of tomorrow.

Homecoming

The preparation has begun and that Pioneer Spirit has been activated . . .

. . . the golf tournament, welcoming time, alumni breakfast, and the ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR award, all augment and add to the memories being accumulated by the members of the LBC family . . .

. . . young and old enjoy activities around campus . . .

Cornerstone Laying

Dean Donald A. Urey, discussing the meaning of the inscription on the cornerstone, stated that in Psalm 23, David recounts God's faithfulness. All that the shepherd is to his flock, God is to His people. As a person, God the Shepherd is STRONG (able to do all that is necessary for His flock) and GENTLE (able to tenderly care for those who are His). As a provider, God the Shepherd RULES over His flock, FEEDS His own, COMES to the aid of His lambs and gently LEADS the sheep (Isaiah 40:10, 11).

Jesus Christ is our Good Shepherd (John 10:11) and, in a very real sense, the Student Union is a Shepherd's building because the building and the individuals who will use and labor in it will, in many ways, provide similar ministries for the student body of LBC. JEHOVAH-ROHI.

. . . that good old Pioneer Spirit is displayed by one and all . . .

. . . from the soccer field to the campfire there was good entertainment for all . . .

... our queen, Linda Geiger, is crowned. The smiles and laughter, a bouquet of roses, and a kiss from President Lease all add to the grandeur and excitement of this day of HOMECOMING.

SMF Hayride

Socials are always a great opportunity to get to know each other. Whether on the wagon in the hay or head to head in a tub of apples, the fun is always grand.

Study Life

. . . thought, exertion, reflection, cogitation, consideration, meditation, speculation, deliberation, brain work, reflection, contemplation, pondering, musing, learning, reading, perusal, cram, memorize, consume the midnight oil, study, study, study!!! That's what academics is all about. The where, how, or when may vary with the individual, but we can never overlook this important aspect of college life.

Friend's Fellowship Banquet

Al Larson, General Director of Unevangelized Fields Mission and guest speaker, contributed greatly to the fellowship during this "time to remember."

Artist Series

Norman and Leonore Curtis, baritone and soprano duo, added sparkle to the student "culture." . . . remember the Hely-Hutchinson "Air" (Old Mother Hubbard)?

"Joy to the World, the Lord is come . . ." It's because of this joy and the hope of His return that we are here; and each new day we are finding that "there is joy in serving Jesus."

Second Semester

The registration which opened second semester was not quite as hectic as that of the first semester although it had its unsettling, feverish moments. There were the usual "reunions" among the returning students and a reception for the new students when they met all the faculty members.

Dr. Donald Hubbard, the midyear conference speaker, with his emphasis on practical Christian living, contributed greatly to the success of the spring semester. Because of his warm personality, he touched our hearts and lives in many special ways.

A new team, a new coach (Thomas O. Figart, Jr.), and a new enthusiasm were the characteristics of our Basketball Chargers this year. They kindled a new spark of eagerness that we trust will continue to glow in the hearts of LBC athletes.

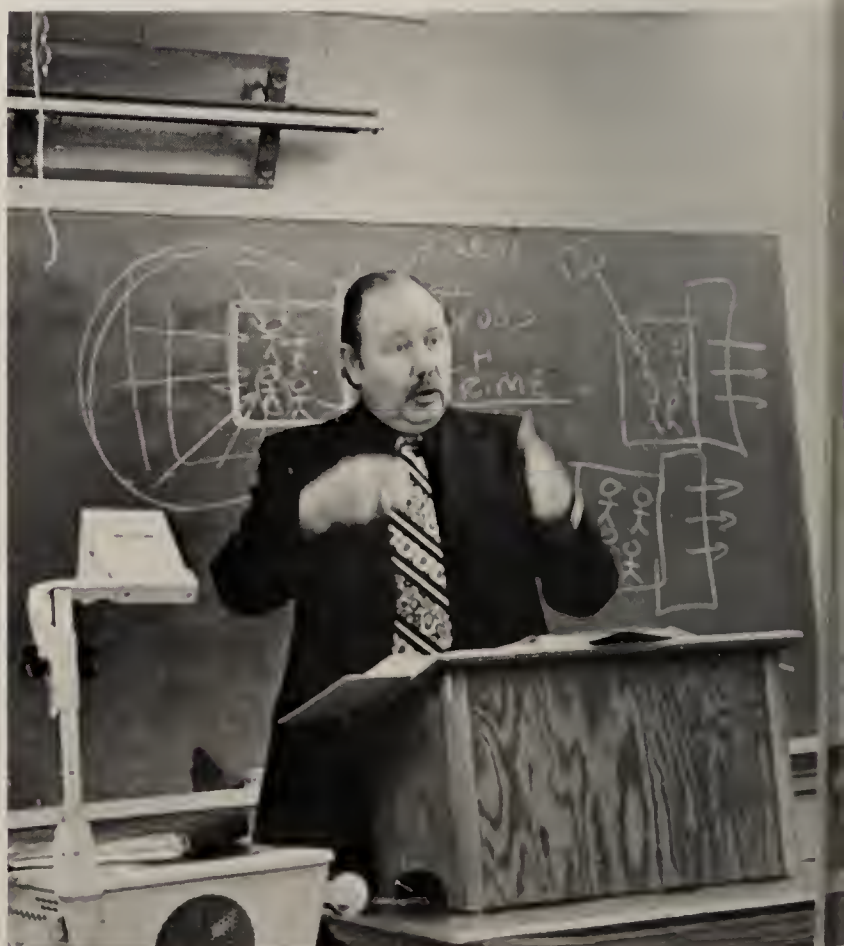

One thing that can be said about our girls basketball team is, "Total victory in spirit!" The team, under the leadership of Mrs. Doris Reid, coach, displayed vivacity, vitality, and vigor as they were joined in their efforts to display a fervent unity of purpose and to glorify Christ through every action.

Academic Life

The Single Collegiate Hope
Of a Learner is to Accomplish
Reasonable Scholarship.

At LBC, this can be realized only with constant, resolute, faithful study on the part of both the professors and the scholars.

Missionary Conference

The Annual Missionary Conference provides a unique harmony of activity. During the week, Mr. George Ledden, U.S. Director of the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade, affirmed that THERE'S A WORLD OUT THERE; facts about mission opportunities were presented in WORLD PERSPECTIVE SEMINARS; exhibits and curios from missionaries and missions were displayed for student perusal; and informal times of conversation and exercise were exchanged between students and missionaries.

A word of appreciation goes to the Student Missionary Fellowship and its Vice President, Robin Harchak, because they planned and successfully carried out the particulars of this very profitable week.

Choir Tour '73

The CONESTOGANS ministered in song and testimony in the churches of Northeastern United States and also had the privilege of seeing some of God's and man's handiwork as they traveled in this area of our beautiful country.

1973 Semi-Formal

This encounter with a different yet enjoyable phase of the Christian culture helps to develop the individual's social poise. Candlelight, fancy clothes, entertainment, flowers, decorations, and "dates," all help to create an atmosphere of refinement and romance.

Another year . . . A concert featuring the captivating soprano voice of Joe Ann Shelton and the mastery of her piano accompanist, Loeen Bushman . . . The year-book dedication . . . Fun-filled escapades and capers at the all-school picnic . . . And the highlight of the momentous year — commencement, an ending and a beginning.

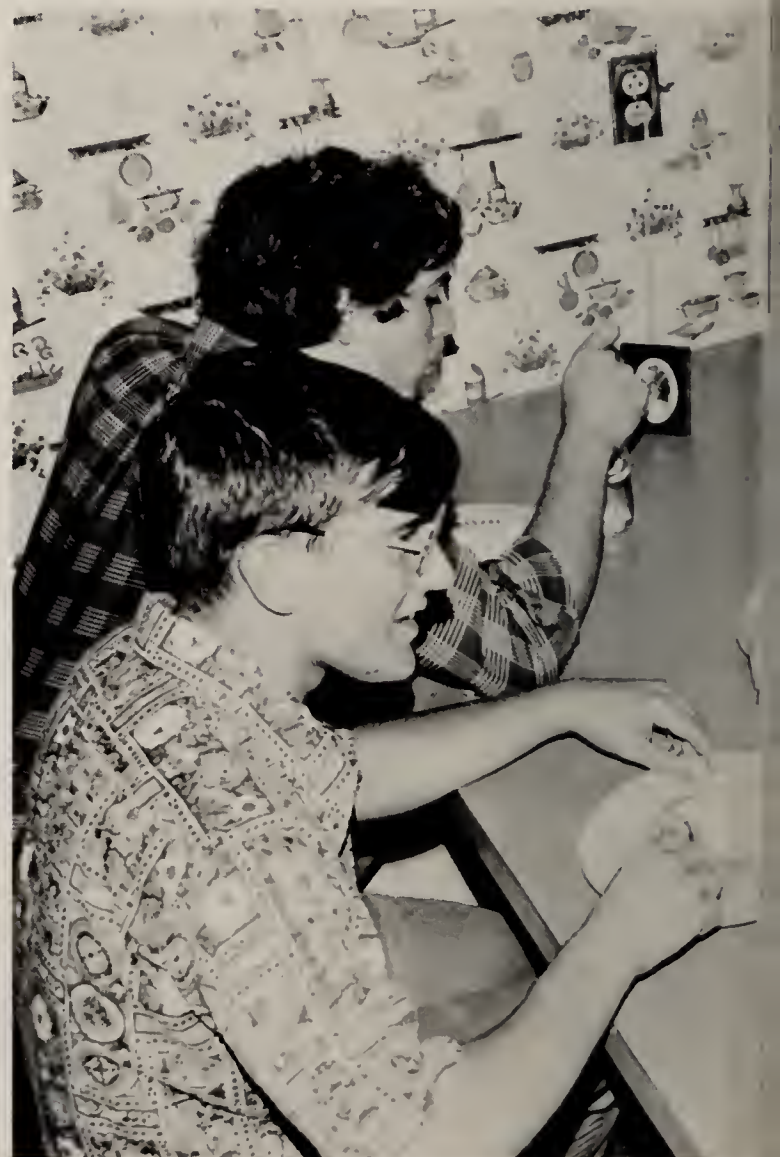

Dorm Life

Living together . . . Working together
. . . Laughing together. "Together" is a key word for our lives here at LBC.

A very special part of our family at LBC is the commuters. This group includes married men and women (some with children) and bachelors from the Weaver home, and each one is a necessary and important part of the total school family.

Social Life

Our lives have grown together this year. For some of us, our lives have been touched in a very special way. We have grown outside of ourselves to love, to care, and to sacrifice; and all of us together have grown in Him.

A Biblical Perspective On The Race Problem

Dr. Thomas O. Figart, a professor of twelve years at our college, is the first of our faculty to write and publish a book.

Probing into an age-old question, Dr. Figart presents scholarly insights as he analyzes the Biblical view of the race problem. Much time and study has been devoted to such pertinent topics as the origin of the races, racial problems in the Old and New Testaments, and the divine perspective on the races as relating to the Christian's attitude toward racial segregation and intermarriage. While many learned men of God have shunned away from this touchy subject, Dr. Figart has delved deeply into it and, as a result, has given us explicit answers based upon the inerrant Word of God.

Therefore to you Dr. Figart, we express our appreciation, pride and love as our author, professor, counselor, and friend. THANK YOU, Dr. Figart.

Jesus loves the little children
All the children of the world;
Red and yellow, Black and white,
They are precious in His sight;
Jesus loves the little children of the world.

From ground breaking, pouring of footers, and laying of cement block through the completion, dedication, and occupancy of the building, the construction of the Student Union has been a focal point of interest on campus. "JEHOVAH ROHI, The Lord is my Shepherd, Psalms 23:1," which appears on the cornerstone, communicates the objective of those who will be using the structure — provide sustenance, counsel, instruction, and service.

Chapel time at LBC is a high point of the day. It is a time of expanding our horizons, and of praising, singing, learning, and sharing. "O come, let us together learn of Him, Let us praise, worship, and adore Him."

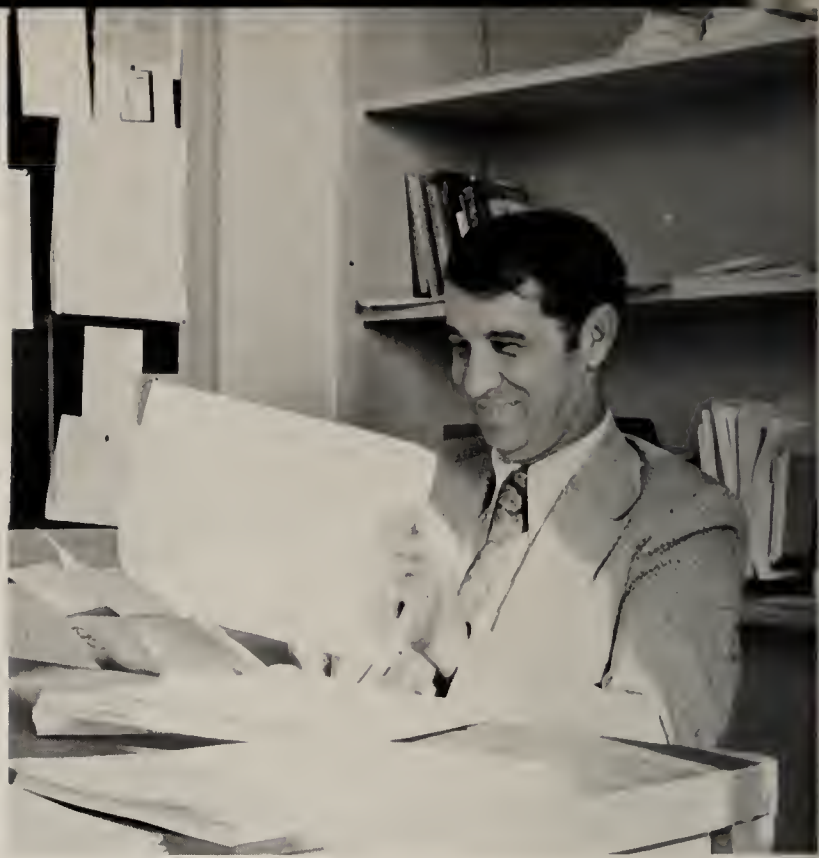

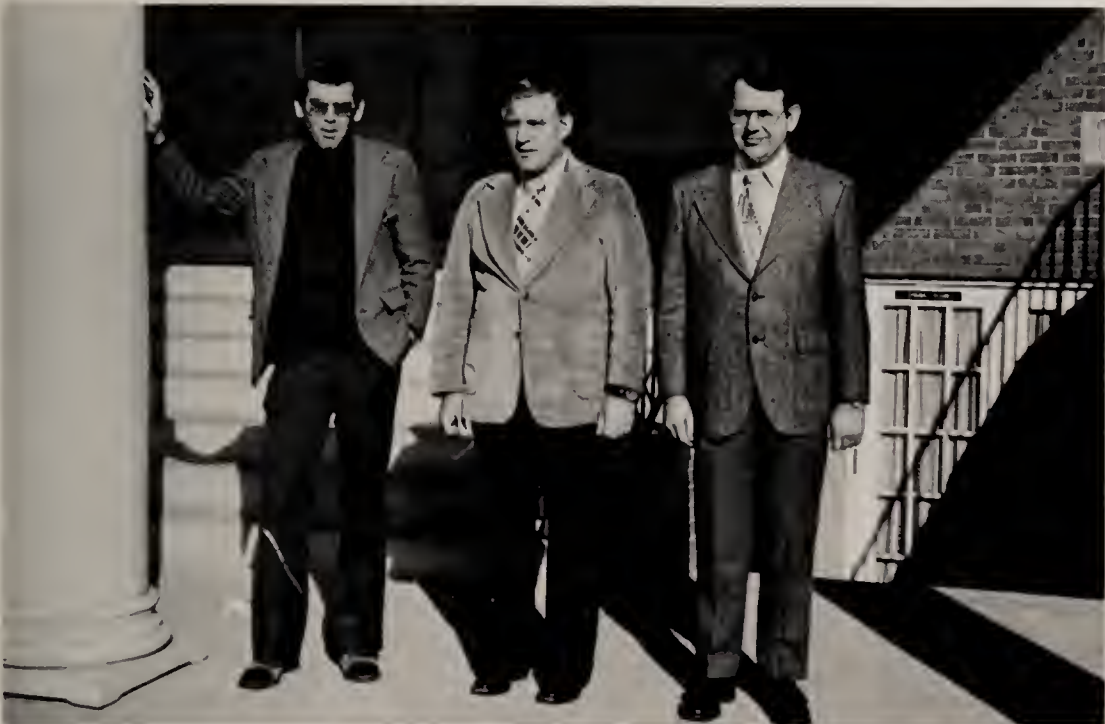

Whether by TV, radio, or Student Internship, the love of Christ constrains us to reach out and proclaim the hope that is within us.

Evening School . . . A ministry of our college to the community in order to reach, teach, and train in the Word of God.

Cheerleaders are necessary in developing "spirit" at a college. It is the cheerleaders who set the enthusiastic tone; it is the cheerleaders whose love for their teams is seen on their faces; it is the cheerleaders who keep team morale at a peak . . . and our cheerleaders are no exception!

Student Council And Social Committee

The governing body of our students, whether involved in their business affairs, breakfast meetings, student contact, or social planning, is recognized as a distinguished group. Their superior leadership during the college year stimulates the emulation of their fellow devotees.

The Student Council Social Committee plans varied activities for the LBC students — an arts festival, a trip to Longwood Gardens, an ice skating party — each one combining with the other to give a panoramic view of the beauty and opportunities available in our world.

"Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord . . ." (Psalm 150:6).

Student Missionary Fellowship

"Fill all my vision . . ." This is what SMF is all about. It involves not only looking at a person, or at a country, but at a world, a world that is in need of Christ.

The makings of a yearbook . . .

snapping pictures,
doing layout,
writing copy,
typing,
proof-reading,
consulting with the advisor,
meeting deadlines,
managing money . . .

It is a challenging but rewarding enterprise.

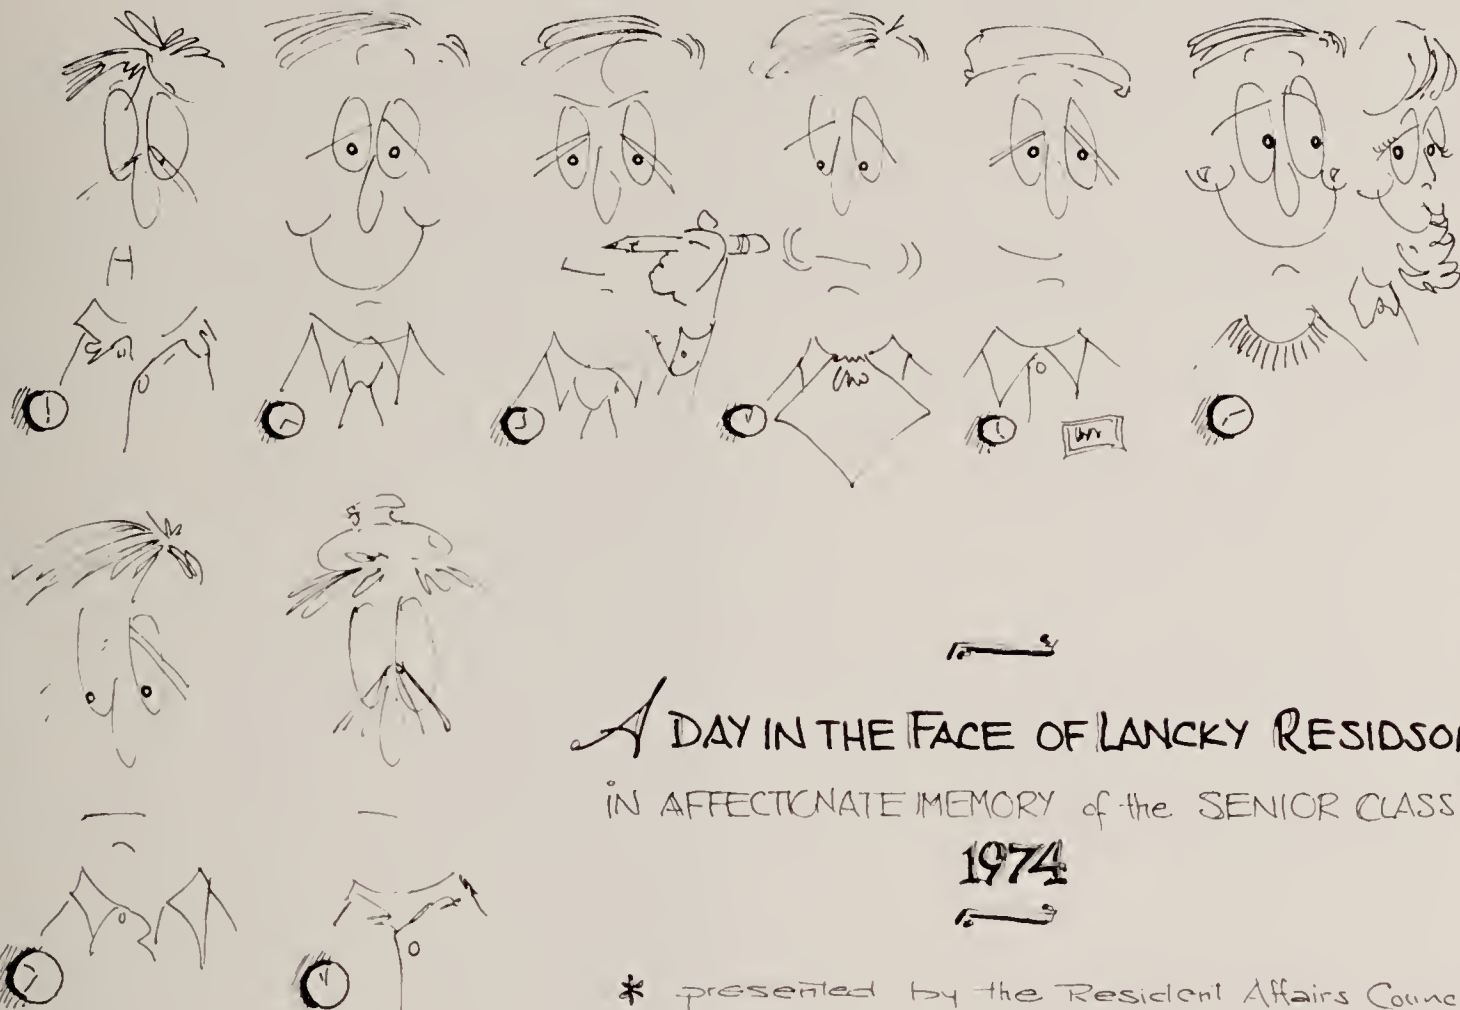

The ICHTHUS staff would like to thank some very special people for their part in creating the 1974 yearbook:

Acknowledgements

I would like to say "Thanks a million" to: Miss Uhler, for being a fantastic and patient advisor; Robin Harchak, for taking charge of photography first semester and doing a great job of snapping candid; Dave Muchmore, for taking charge of photography second semester and taking those "last minute shots;" Rick Hall, for being an economically-minded Business Manager; Charlie Hodges, for a "professional perfectionist's" job on proof-reading; Kathy Rodgers, for being "ever faithful" to help with layout, hour upon hour; Carolyn Gwyn, Sue Humphreys, and Barb Busse, for literary work; Darleen Rimer and Debbie Feathers, for a job well done in the typing department; Patty Wright, Barb Busse, and Coletta Shope, who were always volunteering to do what needed to be done; Sue Leach, for being assistant editor; Mr. Edward Patrick, our Taylor Representative; and all the other staff members who have helped to complete the 1974 ICHTHUS.

Memories . . .

A NEW FAMILY . . . growing;
 A NEW LIFE . . . becoming more abundant;
 A NEW RELATIONSHIP . . . deepening in Christ's love;
 A NEW NAME . . . becoming familiar;
 A NEW SONG . . . resulting in praise to our God.

The 1974 ICHTHUS has tried to capture these memories and many more with the aim of glorifying JESUS CHRIST, GOD'S SON, OUR SAVIOUR.

In Christ's love,

Linda Fisher
